9 UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

10 Plaintiff,

11 v.

12 JERIMIAH JAMES CAMPBELL,

13 Defendant.

NO. CR10-184 MJP

SUMMARY REPORT OF
U.S. MAGISTRATE JUDGE AS TO ALLEGED VIOLATIONS
OF SUPERVISED RELEASE

15 An initial hearing on a petition for violation of supervised release was held before the 16 undersigned Magistrate Judge on October 11, 2011. The United States was represented by 17 Assistant United States Attorney Andrew Colasurdo, and the defendant by Jay Stansell.

18 The defendant had been charged with Bank Robbery, in the District of Nevada, in 19 violation of 18 U.S.C. §§ 2113(a). On or about December 13, 2004, defendant was sentenced
20 by the Honorable Robert C. Jones in the District of Nevada to a term of 60 months in custody,
21 to be followed by three (3) years of supervised release. Upon his release, supervision was 22 transferred to the Western District of Washington.

23 The conditions of supervised release included the requirements that the defendant
24 comply with all local, state, and federal laws, and with the standard conditions. Special
25 conditions imposed included, but were not limited to, participation in a substance abuse
26 program and later included entry to a residential reentry center ("RRC").

1 In a Petition for Warrant or Summons dated September 15, 2011, U.S. Probation
2 Officer Michael S. Larsen asserted the following violation by defendant of the conditions of 3 his supervised release:

4 (1) Failing to report for drug testing on September 6, 8, and 13, 2011, in violation
5 of the special condition ordering him to participate in drug testing as directed by 6 the probation officer.

7 (2) Failing to reside in and satisfactorily participate in a residential reentry center
8 on September 14, 2011, in violation of the special condition ordering him to do
9 so.

10 The defendant was advised of his rights, acknowledged those rights, and admitted to 11 alleged violations 1 and 2.

12 I therefore recommend that the Court find the defendant to have violated the terms and
13 conditions of his supervised release as to violation 1 and 2 and that the Court conduct a hearing
14 limited to disposition. A disposition hearing on these violations has been set before the 15 Honorable Marsha J. Pechman on October 25, 2011 at 9:30 a.m.

16 Pending a final determination by the Court, the defendant has been detained, subject to 17 possible release after results of a drug test and availability at an RRC.

18 DATED this 11th day of October, 2011.
